16 Clearview Street, Belmont

Spacious family home in the Belmont State School Catchment

THE WHY:

Are you tired of driving from open home to open home, walking through homes that need work and $$$'s to make them yours? Want large bedrooms for all your kids? Want plenty of living space but don't really want a massive yard to have to spend all weekend looking after?

THE WHAT:

16 Clearview Street presents like new. The ground floor flows as follows:

The front door leads to an entry foyer and hallway to the living spaces.

Off the entry to the right there is the 5th bedroom which would be ideal for either a study/home office or a guest room for visiting guests.

To the left is the double garage with remote controlled access.

The hallway opens to the formal living room and dining room. Both rooms have floor to ceiling windows and airconditioning.

We then come to the laundry with external access to the side yard and clothesline and the powder room.

At the end of the hall is the grand room incorporating the contemporary kitchen and casual living zone. This area once again has floor to ceiling windows and a sliding
