The current owner purchased this home brand new over 50 years ago. She has raised her family there with many happy times shared around the dining table. Time has come now for her to downsize to something more manageable so has decided to sell this lovely home to someone else to enjoy and make new memories.

Features of this well maintained home include:

Front stairs lead to a covered balcony. The balcony overlooks the grassed fields of the Brisbane State High School sporting area.

There are a set of french doors to the balcony from the living room which let breezes and light through the home.

The kitchen has been renovated in recent years and adjoins the dining area.

Down the central hall to the 3 generous bedrooms, the renovated bathroom and separate toilet.

There is a set of new stairs from the kitchen which take you down to the yard and to a door that accesses the downstairs area of the home. The laundry, tandem garage
