6 Keston Ct, Tingalpa

Fantastic position with potential to add value

This is the first time this home has come to the market since it was built in the late 80's. The owner, after living in a very hot house previously, put a lot of time and thought into the aspect and design of this home to ensure its liveability in the heat of Summer and the cold of Winter. Cavity brick construction, high gable ceiling cavity, cross flow ventilation, room placement and wrap around patios all work beautifully to fulfill their aim.

Beautifully maintained since new, its original with a cool retro vibe. You could either embrace the current style or give the home a makeover. There is opportunity to create a 4th bedroom and take this home into a higher price category.

Features include:

Massive living room with retro Italian tiling

Great kitchen fitted in white and yellow cabinetry. The meals/dining adjoins the kitchen

The bedrooms are all located on the eastern side of the house and all have sliding door access to the side patio. All the bedrooms have built-in robes. The master is also ensuited.

The garage is a gigantic 50.6m². Opportunity here if you would like to create a workshop space as well as parking the cars. create a second living space or 4th
